Excerpt: .times of the Gentiles, or period of Gentile domination over Israel, (which I then showed to be the meaning of this phrase in Scripture;) and that the end of the war, or consummation of the indignation, is to be with another crisis of tribulation, of a still more E afflictive character than the former. That which especially concerns us in it is, that this crisis of the Great Tribulation falls more immediately upon the Gentiles; and is the consequence indeed of the breaking up of the moral and social principles among us: though the Jews will be to a certain extent involved in it But let us turn to the prophecy. At the 29 th verse of this chapter of Matthew, our Lord adds: Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,...
