It is no secret our current education system is failing. We all know the statistics of high school and college dropouts and test scores that leave students unprepared to tackle the challenges they will confront both in the classroom and in the workplace. Secretary Duncan, I want to reiterate my appreciation for your ongoing efforts to reach across the aisle and across town for the betterment of the Nations classrooms. Although we may not see eye to eye on all things, you and I share a belief that the current system is broken and is in desperate need of repair. As we continue working on reforms that focus on what is best for students, parents, teachers, and communities, we must first answer a fundamental question: What is the proper role of the Federal Government in education Despite the near tripling of overall per-pupil funding since 1965, national...
